Wesleyville Village Country Market and Celebrity Baking Auction

Date and Time: Sunday, June 1 10:00 am - 4:00 pm

Address: 2082 Lakeshore Rd. Port Hope

Wesleyville Village comes alive each spring with this much-loved tradition, welcoming visitors of all ages to experience its charm and heritage!

Families can browse through tables from local vendors featuring hand-crafted products, plants and food or enjoy a peaceful spring stroll through the nature trail.

This year's market will once again feature a baking auction, with baked goods made by our own local celebrities.

Bring your sweet tooth and take part in the bidding fun — it's all in support of a great cause!

Market visitors are invited to tour the village and learn about all the recent conservation progress that has been made. A restored reception area in the centre of the village is open to the public and displays in the 125 year-old one-room schoolhouse will once again help visitors to imagine rural life a century ago.

This annual spring fundraising event at Wesleyville Village supports the continued preservation of this listed Provincial Heritage Property of local significance.
