

Monday, December 1, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Monday, December 1 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Tuesday, December 2, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Tuesday, December 2 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Wednesday, December 3, 2025

Holiday Handbells

Date and Time: Wednesday, December 3 6:00 pm - 6:45 pm

Address: 140 Ward St., port hope

Wed. Dec. 3, 2025 - 6pm. The Johnson Handbell Ringers of Trinity College School will perform carols arranged for handbells in the School's Memorial Chapel. Free admission - open to the public. All are welcome! The Memorial Chapel, Trinity College School, 140 Ward St., Port Hope, ON. Free parking at the TCS Arena, 111 Ward St.

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Wednesday, December 3 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Thursday, December 4, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Thursday, December 4 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Friday, December 5, 2025

“The Best Christmas Pageant Ever” a play by Barbara Robinson

Date and Time: Friday, December 5 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Address: 2 Centennial Dr, Port Hope

The C2C Drama Club of Northumberland Youth Unlimited presents "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever" presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals. Friday December 5th at 7 pm and Saturday December 6th at 2 pm at Grace Church, 2 Centennial Drive, Port Hope. Admission is Free

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Friday, December 5 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21
Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Saturday, December 6, 2025

Candlelight Festival: Wagon Rides

Date and Time: Saturday, December 6 11:00 am - 2:00 pm

Address: Downtown Port Hope, Walton Street

Feature Event: Yes

Take a ride on a horse-drawn wagon throughout downtown Port Hope this holiday season!

The rides are being provided by Top Notch Carriage Service on 4 different dates as part of the Port Hope Candlelight Festival.

Light Festival.

- Friday November 28 from 5:00pm – 8:00pm
- The pickup location is Walton Street, south side, beside Penny & Co. across the street from Queenies Bake Shop.
- Saturday December 6 from 11:00am until 2:00pm
- Saturday December 13 from 11:00am until 2:00pm
- Saturday December 20 from 11:00am until 2:00pm
- The pickup location is Walton Street, north side, out front Queenies Bake Shop.

Wagon rides are free and will run in a loop through downtown Port Hope. Special thanks to Enbridge for their seasonal sponsorship of these rides.

Please note there are a few steps to get up into the wagon. The ride is approximately 15 minutes in duration. There is a roof on the wagon, however, all riders should dress in layers for the winter weather!

Festive Fun Day

Date and Time: Saturday, December 6 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

Address: 62 McCaul Street. Port Hope, ON L1A 1L2

Come visit Santa and participate in a variety of fun games, crafts and activities for FREE.

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Saturday, December 6 2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

“The Best Christmas Pageant Ever” a play by Barbara Robinson

Date and Time: Saturday, December 6 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm

Address: 2 Centennial Dr, Port Hope

The C2C Drama Club of Northumberland Youth Unlimited presents "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever" presented by arrangement with Concord Theatricals. Friday December 5th at 7 pm and Saturday December 6th at 2 pm at Grace Church, 2 Centennial Drive, Port Hope. Admission is Free

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Saturday, December 6 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Sunday, December 7, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Sunday, December 7 2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Sunday, December 7 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21
Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Monday, December 8, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Monday, December 8 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21
Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Tuesday, December 9, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Tuesday, December 9 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Wednesday, December 10, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Wednesday, December 10 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Thursday, December 11, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Thursday, December 11 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Friday, December 12, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Friday, December 12 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Saturday, December 13, 2025

Candlelight Festival: Wagon Rides

Date and Time: Saturday, December 13 11:00 am - 2:00 pm

Address: Downtown Port Hope, Walton Street

Feature Event: Yes

Take a ride on a horse-drawn wagon throughout downtown Port Hope this holiday season!

The rides are being provided by Top Notch Carriage Service on 4 different dates as part of the Port Hope Candlelight Festival.

- Friday November 28 from 5:00pm – 8:00pm
- The pickup location is Walton Street, south side, beside Penny & Co. across the street from Queenies Bake Shop.
- Saturday December 6 from 11:00am until 2:00pm
- Saturday December 13 from 11:00am until 2:00pm
- Saturday December 20 from 11:00am until 2:00pm
- The pickup location is Walton Street, north side, out front Queenies Bake Shop.

Wagon rides are free and will run in a loop through downtown Port Hope. Special thanks to Enbridge for their seasonal sponsorship of these rides.

Please note there are a few steps to get up into the wagon. The ride is approximately 15 minutes in duration. There is a roof on the wagon, however, all riders should dress in layers for the winter weather!

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Saturday, December 13 2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the 'Naughty', suitable for a mature audience; and the 'Nice', suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It's also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typi cally based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Saturday, December 13 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, Port Hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Sunday, December 14, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Sunday, December 14 2:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21
Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Sunday, December 14 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Monday, December 15, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Monday, December 15 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21
Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Tuesday, December 16, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Tuesday, December 16 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It's also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you're going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Wednesday, December 17, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Wednesday, December 17 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It's also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you're going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic D irector Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Thursday, December 18, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Thursday, December 18 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Friday, December 19, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Friday, December 19 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, Port Hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Saturday, December 20, 2025

Candlelight Festival: Wagon Rides

Date and Time: Saturday, December 20 11:00 am - 2:00 pm

Address: Downtown Port Hope, Walton Street

Feature Event: Yes

Take a ride on a horse-drawn wagon throughout downtown Port Hope this holiday season!

The rides are being provided by Top Notch Carriage Service on 4 different dates as part of the Port Hope Candlelight Festival.

- Friday November 28 from 5:00pm – 8:00pm
- The pickup location is Walton Street, south side, beside Penny & Co. across the street from Queenies Bake Shop.
- Saturday December 6 from 11:00am until 2:00pm
- Saturday December 13 from 11:00am until 2:00pm
- Saturday December 20 from 11:00am until 2:00pm
- The pickup location is Walton Street, north side, out front Queenies Bake Shop.

Wagon rides are free and will run in a loop through downtown Port Hope. Special thanks to Enbridge for their seasonal sponsorship of these rides.

Please note there are a few steps to get up into the wagon. The ride is approximately 15 minutes in duration. There is a roof on the wagon, however, all riders should dress in layers for the winter weather!

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Saturday, December 20 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you're going to see and hear something new each time." ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Sunday, December 21, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Sunday, December 21 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, Port Hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the 'Naughty', suitable for a mature audience; and the 'Nice', suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It's also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

"Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you're going to see and hear something new each time." ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Monday, December 22, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Monday, December 22 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Tuesday, December 23, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Tuesday, December 23 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Wednesday, December 24, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Wednesday, December 24 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Thursday, December 25, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Thursday, December 25 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Friday, December 26, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Friday, December 26 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Saturday, December 27, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Saturday, December 27 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

Sunday, December 28, 2025

Hansel and Gretel: The Sticky and Sweet Panto

Date and Time: Sunday, December 28 7:30 pm - 9:30 pm

Address: 20 Queen Street, port hope

Feature Event: Yes

A twisted take on the stickiest fairy tale we could find.

Hansel and Gretel are siblings who are abandoned in a forest, and due to some rather unfortunate navigation, they fall into the hands of a nasty witch who lives in a gingerbread house. With songs you know and love, hilarious characters, and the silliest of stories, this sugar-laden panto will have you rolling in the aisles!

Who is this show for?

As in past years, the Capitol has performances suitable for both the ‘Naughty’, suitable for a mature audience; and the ‘Nice’, suitable for young audiences and families.

Ok, but what is a Panto?

Pantomime or panto is a holiday theatre tradition of organized chaotic comedy, with slapstick jokes, songs, and dancing. It’s also highly interactive, making it a joyful experience for artists and audiences alike. Pantos are typically based on fairy tales or legends – familiar tales that can be shaped into new stories for today.

“Pantos are magical – colourful in style, set and language, and just so much fun. Northumberland county takes holiday celebrations seriously, and the panto has become an annual tradition for many folks in the area. We produce an original panto every year, so you’re going to see and hear something new each time.” ~Capitol Artistic Director Rob Kempson.

How long is the show?

Run time is approximately 120 minutes.

Are there special performances?

Pay-what-you-can preview – November 21

Indigenous Community Night – December 5

TICKETS from $22 – $48 including taxes and fees.

Group Discounts also available for celebrations of 15 or more guests.

Choose Your Adventure Below to Book Your Seats!

